Glad to Show You Week, October 7 to 10

BARRE DAILY TIMES

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1914.

The Weather

Generally fair to-night and Thursday; somewhat warmer; gentle to moderate winds, becoming south.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Indian blankets at Fitts'. New millinery at Abbott's. New bags, new neckwear, at Knight's. Diversi's: Large basket Concorda 25c. The condition of John E. Marrion of Summer street, who has been quite seriously ill for several days, was reported to be slightly improved to-day.

Mrs. H. M. Houston of Maple avenue and Mrs. Nellie L. Kidder of Summer street returned yesterday from a week's visit with friends in New York.

Edward Milne of Laurel street, who has been confined to the City hospital for several weeks as the result of an operation, is able to be out of doors.

Miss Ruth Parker entertained a few friends last evening in honor of her sister, Miss Helen Parker, whose wedding in the near future has been announced.

Church of the Good Shepherd: A meeting of the young people's society will be held in the vestry this evening at 7:30 o'clock. A good attendance is desired.

Misses Jessie and Elsie Morgan of Ayers street returned yesterday from a week's visit with friends in New York. The latter has resumed her duties in the telephone central office.

Thomas Farrell, a 1913 graduate of Goddard seminary, who has been employed by Boutwell, Milne & Varnum in Graniteville, began work yesterday in the F. D. Ladd Co. store.

John S. Wittmore of Cambridge, Mass., formerly one of the best known traveling men in this locality, was a guest of George N. Tilden of South Main street yesterday and to-day.

Carl Pierson of Elm street has bought the farm of Edward Erickson on west hill. The farm contains about 40 acres of land, a large house and barn. The deal involves about $4,000. Mr. Pierson takes possession at once.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. John Stewart and Madam Stewart of West street are making an extended visit with relatives in Quincy and Dorchester, Mass. The trip to Massachusetts was made by automobile.

Mrs. J. Ward Carver, who has been convalescing from a serious illness at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Carver in Marshfield, was able to return to her home on Tremont street to-day. She was accompanied by Mrs. Carver and her mother, Mrs. T. S. Powers, of Richmond, who will remain in town for a few days.

William Foster of Boston, a representative of the New England Insurance exchange, arrived in the city yesterday to inspect the electrical appliances in the quarries and in the various substations of the Tenney service in this locality. Before returning to Boston, Mr. Foster will look over the wire connections in the stoneshed belt.

Joseph McCafferty returned this forenoon to his home in Quebec, after passing a few days with friends on Jefferson street. Mr. McCafferty is a brother of William McCafferty, who was taken seriously ill with typhoid fever while employed in the Drown pharmacy several weeks ago. He is now convalescing from his illness.

News is received here of the illness in Cambridge, Mass., of Mrs. Paul W. Waterman, who is now confined in a Cambridge hospital as the result of an attack of typhoid fever. Mrs. Waterman's mother, Mrs. F. W. Coburn of Plainfield, is caring for her. Mr. and Mrs. Waterman went to Cambridge from this city a short time ago, the former having been engaged as an instructor in the Volkman school.

Peter Gonyo, a Berlin farmer living near Benjamin falls, drove into town yesterday with the first of his 1914 crop. Mr. Gonyo believes he has established something of a record in the potato line, having raised 2,200 bushels this season from a comparatively small plot of land on his home place. Tubers this year have attained an unusually large average in size and are of excellent quality.

Tuesday's arrivals at the Buzzell hotel include: D. W. Jardina, F. H. Parker, George N. Myers, Burlington; J. S. Jackson, A. Waters, St. Johnsbury; W. J. Menard, Utica, N. Y.; J. S. Streaker, P. Small, George Barnett, George F. McCordy, Boston; A. M. Buckline, Canaan; N. H.; H. D. MacCall, Rutland; Fred Muttelpeider, Albany, N. Y.; A. W. Cole, Boston; L. B. Boynton, Morrisville; Mrs. A. E. Morris, Brattleboro; Mrs. M. Crawford, Hartford, Conn.; C. E. Nighthale, New York.

Frank Bassett, the young son of Clinton Bassett of Trow hill, who was accidentally shot in the right arm while hunting with his companion, Norman Baker, last Saturday afternoon, is slowly recovering from the effects of the accident, although the arm is still sore and some time must necessarily elapse before he can use the limb. His physician has been unable definitely to locate the bullet, although it seems certain that the missile imbedded itself in the flesh near the elbow.

When fire which destroyed the pickering connected with the Little Woolen Co.'s plant at North Montpelier yesterday noon seemed to threaten the big mill nearby, officers of the company telephoned to fire headquarters here and asked for assistance. It was the first emergency call from outside since the council voted to restrict the use of the auto fire truck to Barre and instead of sending the truck, Alderman A. F. Bruce took his touring car and three firemen to the scene of the fire.

With extensive alterations to the Zanleoni block now well under way, ground has been broken for a large rear annex which is to take the form of a moving picture house, the largest in Barre and one of the best amusement places of its kind in the state. The theatre is to extend easterly from the Zanleoni building to the property line of Merchant street. The first spadeful of earth being turned on the foundation, promoters of the enterprise predict that the structure will be completed and ready for occupancy by Dec. 15. Two stories in height, the building is to have lateral dimensions of 32 and 118 feet. Solid brick walls are to be constructed and from end to end and corner to corner the structure is to be entirely fireproof. Plans now ready for the build are call for a theatre which will seat 1,100 people. There is to be a spacious balcony with an inclined floor in the auditorium. The stage is to be sufficiently large to accommodate vaudeville troupes and three scenic units are planned, one or either side of the stage and a central exit which will lead to Main street through the Zanleoni building. It is stated on good authority that a Burlington "movie" syndicate has leased the theatre.

TALK OF THE TOWN

At Diversi's, Concorda, 2 for 25c. All the grapes you want, two baskets for 25c, at United Fruit Store. A daughter weighing eight pounds was born Monday, Oct. 5, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kenebeck of Highland avenue.

S. S. Smith of Maple avenue left this forenoon for Randolph, where he will make a few days' stay with friends.

Thomas Creighton and Martin Wims of Uxbridge, Mass., are visiting at the home of A. A. Lamorey of Carrier street.

Mrs. William McFarland of Washington street left this forenoon for a few days' visit at her former home in Boston.

Kendall Love, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Noble S. Love of 60 Tremont street, is confined to the house by an attack of chicken-pox.

Mrs. John Forbes of North Main street began work this morning in "Jack's" restaurant this morning. Regular meals are now being served at "Jack's."

Reports from the City hospital indicate that Eugenio Marchesi, the Burnham's meadow granite manufacturer who was seriously injured when a falling derrick boom struck him at the plant of the Peerless Granite Co. last week, has better than an even chance for recovery. Scalp wounds which the man received when he was thrown against a stone are healing and he complains of but little pain.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Albert Young of the fire station is taking a week's vacation from his duties and is visiting relatives in Tunbridge.

Henry McColl returned to Barre last night from Milford, N. H., where he has been employed in the granite industry for several months.

Rev. James Struthers, who has been taking the place of Rev. George H. Holt as pastor of the Barre Baptist church, left to-day for Stratford. He was accompanied by Rev. William Garshore of Webstersville.

Albert W. Wheeler, who has been undergoing treatment for typhoid fever in the Heaton hospital at Montpelier for the past seven weeks, was able to return to this city yesterday. Mr. Wheeler will not resume his duties with the Consolidated Lighting Co. until next week.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Two horned toads of a species almost unknown in this latitude are being exhibited in the display window at the Tilden Shoe Co.'s store. The toads were loaned the shoemen by Frank Stowe of South Main street, who brought them to Vermont with him from Mexico, where he recently spent several weeks.

The toads were three in number when Mr. Stowe got back from the South, but since the advent of cooler weather, one of them has burrowed a hole in the land in Mr. Stowe's cellar with the idea of hibernating for the winter. During the cold months the toads become lethargic and as a rule do not emerge from their torpor until spring is well advanced. The toads at the shoe store refuse water and will not eat anything set before them. They subsist principally on flies.

An Opportunity for Household Economy

The great advance in price of cream of tartar—which is derived from grapes—due to inability to care for and market the grape crop in the European countries now at war, can be made advantageous to the housewives of New England.

Housekeepers will find it more economical and much more satisfactory to use Royal Baking Powder, which is made from highly refined, pure cream of tartar. First, because the price of Royal has not been changed and it will do perfect work; second, because food made with Royal Baking Powder will be finer and more palatable; and finally, because it insures the absence of all danger from alum or similar unwholesome products.

The old-fashioned custom of buying cream of tartar and mixing it with soda, or using sour milk, may be discarded with profit. The high cost and scarcity of cream of tartar furnishes a temptation to unscrupulous dealers to substitute an adulterated product, which may be either lime phosphates or alum, that will change the baking strength and may spoil the food.

BUSINESS IS GOOD

WATCH US GROW

"Peace hath her victories no less renowned than War"

There is but little cause for complaint from citizens of this country—in fact, we should all be thankful that our lot has been cast in "Liberty-Loving America." Business conditions are good, and we do not anticipate any immediate reversal of these favorable conditions.

We do not care to make extravagant claims, but we do and will continue to protect the interests of our customers in every way. Prices are still reasonable on most drug store goods, but should slight increases become necessary from time to time, we shall be glad to give customers a reason for such. Don't forget our slogan:
